

Choose Your Own 2008 ADDY Awards Acceptance Music

We're changing things up this year, and playing some music for when you march up on stage to accept your awards. But why should you do your walk of fame to some cheesy canned elevator music, when what really gets your blood pumping is a little AC/DC or Jay Z? (Or, if it suits your tastes, Avril Lavigne). We're trying to get some more energy into the room on the night of the awards.

Some suggestions:

- 'We are the Champions' by Queen
- 'Get Ready for This' by 2 Unlimited
- 'Celebration' by Kool and the Gang

So think about what music you'd like to strut your stuff to, should you be lucky enough to win an ADDY this year. The same unique song will be played each time a company wins, but please indicate your three top choices.

If you didn't bring your music with you on CD, email your song file to emily@jeanpetersondesign.com. Make sure you provide non-rights-managed .mp3 files (translation: it needs to be able to play on any computer without authorization).

PLEASE NOTE:

- You should indicate the start time for each song.
- Keep your selections to "clean" versions of songs.
